Dear Mr. Meyer:

Following up on our telephone conversation, the Cercle is an informal group of men and women from Germany, France, Italy, the United Kingdom, Belgium, Spain, the United States and other countries who share a concern about the future of our common civilization, particularly in regard to the challenge posed by the Soviet Union and its allies. Our members include: from the United Kingdom -- Julian Amery, Member of Parliament and leader of the group; three other MPs; and a couple of Lords in addition to persons involved in foreign affairs concerns; from Italy -- Senor Pandolfi, Minister for Industry and former Minister of the Treasury; and General Capuzzo, Chief of Staff of the Italian Armed Forces; from Germany -- Karl Heinz Narjes, German Commissioner to the Common Market; Alois Mertes, German Minister of State for Foreign Affairs; Hans Graf Huyn, Speaker in the Bundestag on foreign affairs for the CSU; Otto Von Habsburg; Alfons Horten, German industrialist; from the Netherlands -- Franz Otten, a member of the Phillips family and senior executive in Phillips/Eindhoven; from Spain -- the Condesa de Romanones; and leaders of the party in opposition to the Socialist Government; persons of equivalent distinction from France, Belgium and Latin America.

The formal letter of invitation, signed by Julian Amery M.P., is enclosed. Looking forward to seeing you Friday night at 1900 at the front desk of the Sheraton Carlton, 10th and K Streets, N.W.

Yours sincerely,

Donald F. B. Jameson
